

The Carnation Revolution: Portugal's Road to Democracy

*Wednesday, April 25th 2012
Tulare Angrense Hall
1521 East Bardsley Ave--Tulare, CA
7PM*

Come and hear a brief lecture, followed by debate, about the revolution that paved the way for major changes in Portugal.

This talk will be followed by a reception in honor of the 25th of April with Portuguese Sweets.

"When I became involved in the planning of this mission, I swore on my honor that I would see it through to its end. For this I would give my soul—my life." Captain Salgueiro Maia

This event is co-sponsored by the Institute for Azorean-American Studies, the Portuguese Language School Vitorino Nemésio s from CPEC and the Tulare-Angrense Athletic Club

Entrance is free and everyone is invited

